

N. C. S. LARGE COURSE

A rider enters the course between cones "b" and "c" and executes a slalom through the center three cones. The rider then enters the circle in a counter-clockwise direction and completes one rotation. The rider must next exit the circle in a straight line and finishes through cones "a" and "b".

(Riders may enter between cones "d" and "c" and execute in a mirror image of the above description.)